Catalonia

The Catalonia region in northeastern Spain stretches from Pyrenean peaks to the warm, turquoise waters of the Mediterranean, passing plateaus, forests, wildflower meadows, rice paddies and ravines along the way. With medieval towns, the Costa Brava's prettiest coves, fantastic cuisine and fabulous cycle and hiking trails, this beautiful part of Spain has plenty to offer.

Hotel Casa Anamaria

Situated deep in the Catalan countryside, framed by the Pyrenees mountain range, this honey-coloured patrician villa, was built by French businessman, Olivier Mitterand in 2016 in the image of the Palladian villas of the 16th century. Set in over 60 acres of gardens, woods and fields with pine and oak trees lining a salt-water swimming pool, this villa is situated next to the original 14th century farmhouse buildings which have been converted into luxury accommodation, perfectly blending new with old.

Inside the main building, French-influenced design includes chandeliers, high ceilings and a touch of opulence. A spiral iron staircase leads to contemporary bedrooms on the first and second floors and vintage ornaments are peppered throughout. Expect tranquility and warm, friendly service.

Restaurant Can Motes

Mar i muntanya – sea and mountain – is the key to Catalan cuisine according to executive chef, Pere Arpa, who spent 14 years as owner and chef at a nearby Michelin-starred restaurant and came to Casa Anamaria in 2021. His ethos is to link ‘territory, culture and local products’ and fills the hotel’s pantry with delicious fresh and seasonal products from local small producers and the hotel’s organic garden. The hotel’s excellent restaurant has an eco-focus offering a heavily Catalan-based menu with a modern twist.

Bridge with Zeb & Claudia

Zeb Stocken has many years experience of teaching and hosting bridge events, and whether you come as a group, in a pair or on your own, you can be certain of an instructive and enjoyable game adapted to your level.

Claudia – Zeb’s sister – will be on hand to ensure the smooth running of your holiday and will be joined by their mother, Dinah, to supervise and partner guests if needed. The bridge programme will be a mixture of teaching, supervised play and some duplicate or teams – all played in a fun and friendly environment.

The tuition sessions will use Compass Cards (set deals) and a fun topic tailored to the group. All bridge sessions are optional and open to all standards of play although we can only accommodate complete beginners if booked as a group of four. Water, tea and coffee will be available during play.

We will be playing bridge in an adjacent converted barn, El Paller, with plenty of natural light or, weather permitting, outside on the terrace under the pergola. (NB 8 outside steps with handrail to access bridge room; steps down to the loos)

It is important to stress that our holidays are not aimed at the type of player who likes a serious 24-board duplicate every night. Our ethos is that bridge should be a friendly and social game where you can meet like-minded people, and our holidays reflect that. No partner is needed on a StockenBridge holiday and non-bridge playing partners are of course welcome.

The hotel has a number of bikes available to use and rackets for a game on the well-maintained tennis court.
