It is the responsibility of individuals to ensure they have adequate travel insurance for this trip, to include any activities in which they may be participating. On booking you must guarantee that you have, or will have made the arrangements to insure your party as necessary. If you cancel the holiday, you will need to make a claim through your insurance company. In all the arrangements we have made for your holiday, we have taken reasonable steps to ensure that the suppliers of the services used are of an acceptable standard. However, we would point out that we do not own or control the organisations providing transport or accommodation for your holiday. We cannot accept any liability for services provided where these services are interrupted by force majeure, which includes but is not limited to acts of God, adverse weather conditions, ash cloud, acts or threat of war, government action, strike, terrorism, civil unrest, fire, failure of public utilities, medical emergency, natural or nuclear disaster or airport closure. There is a deposit - payable on booking - of £200 per person. It is non-refundable if you have to cancel for any reason. The full balance becomes due and must be paid by October 31st 2017. If for any reason, the balance is not received by us by the due date, we reserve the right to treat your booking as cancelled as at that date. All cancellations must be made in writing by the person who signed the booking form, and sent to 'Stockens Ltd' at the above address. If the cancellation is within 72 days of departure the following rates will be applied to the total holiday cost calculated from the date on which we receive written notice of cancellation and taking into account the non-refundable deposit:

- within 7 days of departure: 100%
- within 8-28 days of departure: 90%
- within 29-72 days of departure: 60%

Percentages are of total holiday cost. If you are obliged to cancel, you may, with reasonable notice, transfer your booking to a third party who satisfies all the conditions required by a person taking that holiday, but you will be obliged to pay for any additional costs resulting from the transfer.

We seldom cancel a tour but regretfully reserve the right to do so where there are insufficient bookings eight weeks before departure. In those circumstances full payment including your deposit will be refunded; unfortunately we cannot accept liability for any other expenses you have incurred such as the purchase of non-refundable travel tickets.
